

SHIRA STEIN

JOURNALIST

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Journalism

American University, Washington, D.C.
Graduated in three years
Minor in Biology

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

- Spoke on Bloomberg panel about covering LGBT issues
- Moderated Bloomberg Law keynote interview on value-based care
- Speaker at the 2018 AI Neuharth Free Spirit and Journalism Conference
- Speaker at the Newseum's Power Shift Project: Power to the Interns event

AFFILIATIONS

Association of Health Care Journalists (May 2019 - present)
Investigative Reporters and Editors (December 2017 - present)
Society for Advancing Business Editing and Writing (May 2019 - present)

CONTACT DETAILS

202.596.6184
shira.m.stein@alumni.american.edu
www.shiramstein.com

EXPERIENCE

Bloomberg Law

Heath-Care Oversight Reporter | May 2018 - Present

- Covering health-care oversight on Capitol Hill, including drug pricing, changes to Obamacare, and health-care consolidation
- Writing unique enterprise and data stories about a wide variety of health-care topics, including LGBT health, rural health, and health in marginalized communities
- Acted as the main health-care reporter for the 2018 midterms
- Finalist for Q2 2018 Beltz award, an internal award for editorial excellence

The Washington Post

Metro Desk Intern | September 2017 - May 2018

- Reported from Washington on local community activities, education, local politics and crime online and in print
- Awarded internship through a competitive "dean's intern" program
- Stories included coverage of a youth civil rights summit, STEM education in Washington-area universities and the Virginia gubernatorial election.

Bloomberg BNA

Editorial Intern | May 2017 - August 2017

- Reported from Capitol Hill and Washington on banking, securities regulations, corporate governance and antitrust policy
- Had four stories in the TOP section of the Bloomberg Terminal
- Finalist for Q3 2017 Beltz award.

The Durango Herald

Washington Intern | January 2017 - May 2017

- Reported from Capitol Hill for Southwest Colorado's Durango Herald, its sister newspaper and its website
- Localized national policy issues by attending committee hearings, meeting with officials and interviewing members of Congress, with a focus on the Colorado delegation
- Wrote articles for a print circulation of 5,000 and an online circulation of 300,000 users per month.

CONFERENCES

- Women in Journalism Workshop 2019
- Wharton Public Policy Seminars for Business Journalists 2019
- Newseum's Power Shift Summit 2.0 2019
- SRCCON:POWER 2018
- Wharton Seminars for Business Journalists 2018
- Online News Association 2017